

The temple

Below a partial transcript of a Jamie Walden interview describing how the defilement of our temples may play out....

But you see the world today trying to build the third temple. We see [from Matthew 24:15] that the abomination of desolation happens in the third temple. And I'm wondering if there's a connection with these entities with the third temple. That, I mean, that they want this maybe to be their home base. I know it sounds crazy.

It doesn't have to be look exactly like that, but I think there's a connection with all of this, you know, and I agree. And the connection is counterfeit, right? Antichrist means in place of Christ. It actually doesn't mean against Christ, believe it or not. (again semantics do matter especially this late in the hour to know and understand the details of what we're saying). So, the antichrist comes in place of Christ. Which again going back, to even Christ's warning to the disciples in Matthew 24 and Luke 21 and Mark 13 and elsewhere, about if anybody says there he is over there, don't go, or there he is over there, don't go. Many false messiahs will arise and deceive many. Many will say I am the Christ. Christ is a loose word; again, the new-agers and the yogis, the Kundalini yoga masters and the Gaia worshiping freak shows, you know, and everybody else in between.

They all believe in Christ and a Christ consciousness. Mormons believe in a Christ. Not the same Christ that you and I believe in. You know, Catholics reference Christ. It's closer, but still some, you know, things. I mean, even in Islam, you know, they affirm Jesus -Isa- in Islam. They affirm him all the time and actually Jesus is part and parcel to returning with the 12th imam with their Mahdi. Jesus is with them. So, you know what's funny too? What's funny is the grays, which they call themselves according to - you know they call themselves the Elohim, and they also say that Jesus was one of the ascending masters. There you go. Yeah. And that's Christ consciousness.

That that's literally Christ consciousness; it's that Jesus is an ascended master one and you can become that too. You can become Christ, which just means an ascended master right, through (not through) gnosis and through these different occultic practices. So, all that to say is, yeah, it it's a counterfeit of everything. If you think about it, if we were to look at it didactically, just off the top of my head, it's like, you have Father, Son, Holy Spirit. Well, you have father, Lucifer; son, antichrist; holy spirit, false prophet, a counterfeit.

You have death and resurrection to prove who he was, in his supremacy. Well, the antichrist receives a mortal headwound from which he miraculously heals, right?

He also has to descend upon the mount of olives. Jesus' feet will touch the mount of olives, and it'll split in two. Well, then that's exactly where the "in place of Christ" (the Antichrist) is going to rule and reign from.

Christ also said, I have not, I do no longer dwell in a temple built by human hands, but you know, and in each one of you, to the individual, by the power of my Holy Spirit (is the temple of God).

So, as an affront and a counterfeit, they're going to rebuild a temple built by human hands and then he's going to indwell that, and everybody will clamor for it.

Same thing with the blood. This is total shifting gears, total speculation. I believe the mark of the beast will be some type of I won't say the word because it's automatic flag. (But like, you know, the immunology that you take in your body that helps you out when you're really sick?). I believe that that "that thing" that you would take in your body through an injection, that the mark of the beast will have something to do with the blood of that guy of this ascended master; whatever resurrected Apollo, raising of Osiris ceremony.

[interviewer:] What's that? It's the philosopher stone. Yes. And I believe there will be the elixir. The elixir of life.

The tree of life, the tree of life, that it's a counterfeit immortality without going through Christ. And I believe that there will be something in the blood of this thing, this entity, man, whatever you want to call him, demigod. That it's by his blood that you will be healed.

Just like by Christ's blood, we will be healed. And it will be it will be mass-produced because of the trauma, right? You got to you got to think about satanic ritualistic abuse, which is all trauma-based fear-based abuse. So that's why you have the World War III, then you have the global economic collapse and hyperinflationary money. And then you have the chloros green horse that rides out. Death and Hades follow after them, and a quarter of the world's population is killed by the sword and by pestilence and by plague.

So, after all that now you have this seared consciousness of 2.2 two billion dead in a very short order. And then this guy comes on the scene with flatteries preaching peace and security and a restoration of these things. And that's why you do away with mortars and that's why you ecumenical the religions and it's hyper spiritual and you bring about unity and then you do away with inequalities and you create an equity-based system with a universal basic income. um under blockchain tech with biometric based central bank digital currency.

So then we eliminate those chances for war, to war and trauma, to start from there. War and trauma from religion, war and trauma from wealth, war and trauma from borders and nations, war and trauma from religious tensions and then the trauma of our weak failed bodies that are susceptible to viral or bacterial infections. So, then you take this, but to make sure that we know who has this (injection); - because we just lost 2.2 billion people in six weeks. This is what I believe. It'll be very short-lived.

That the outliers who refuse to take this (injection) now are such a high threat to the global prosperity and progression and the evolutionary process of a human species. You are such a threat and such an outlier, that if you do not show proof that you have been cleansed, for lack of a better word, by this thing coming into your body, to give you a genetic upgrade, to make you like this guy, to become like a god.

Maybe some health benefits, life extension benefits, quasi-, you know, counterfeit immortality benefits, whatever they say it. You must be put to death because you could be a carrier, or a super spreader, of another round of this stuff. So, we must know who's who, and who has received this, so that this doesn't happen again.

And everybody will be fully unified through a counterfeit form of love and altruistic fervor and spiritual fervor to do this thing. And if you refuse it now, you are a threat to all of humanity. And again, like I said, and (to) the very evolutionary process of the species, to enter in transhumanism, and all that other stuff.

So, when we're when we're looking at this from this macro picture of antichrist, 'in-place of Christ'; Jesus said, I came in my father's name and you receive me not. Another one's going to come in his own name. And that's the dude you're going to receive. You're going to accept him, hands down. Why? Because you're a lover of self and you're a lover of pleasure more than God.

But notice the ones who overcome him. And they overcame him by the blood of the lamb. There's your blood. By the word of your testimony. Oh dude, I know my God. And you did not love your own life so much as to shrink back from death. See, that's going to be the final sifter of those who have a regenerate heart in Christ, being undone by the gospel, versus those who have been playing games and word-smithing their little churchianity; you know, whatever stuff, for the majority of their life who are going to abandon the faith 'en masse' for self-preservation.

Oh, wait. It's almost like we just had a forerunner of that. We literally just had a forerunner, and we saw it happen en masse. You can't do this. You can't do that. You're an outlier. You're not loving. You're a threat to the elderly. You're a threat to your family members. If you want to go on vacation, if you want to keep your job, if you want to do whatever, you better take this thing. and then we're going to peer pressure you and we're going to literally physically threaten you, and threaten your entire reality, if you refuse this thing because you're a super spreader.

So, we've already seen what that was, and I said it as soon as it came out. I actually got banned everywhere and kicked off everywhere and blah blah blah. That this is the final asymmetric hybrid warfare, the softening tactic for the big show. This was a final mass global traumatic ritualistic abuse-based ceremony through a synergistic fear based collective consciousness to get you ready for the next round. That one was totally fabricated. Totally fabricated.

The next one will be real. And actually, one of the reasons for exposing all the fouches of the world and blah blah blah and all that; is so that the next round people will refuse it at first; and it'll spread so fast and so hard. That one that's actually designed, you know, with a whatever however high of a mortality rate. It's all intentional so that all these anti- "that word" people won't take this in their body.

Then it'll super spread and there's actually going to be bodies lying in the street, and then they offer the solution that they had pre-planned all along, right? The Hegelian dialectic, you know, agenda of it all. So, yeah, man, it's it's all related. I know. And you know what else is as well? I think what's one of the capabilities of this mark of the beast, right? That people are not going to be told. Okay, because we obviously could see that back in 2020 when things were given to the public.

It was: what they were saying basically: 'hey this is safe and effective'. Okay. So, they're going to push the same kind of ideology with what comes in in the future. They're not going to give any disclaimers out there, that basically you're going to lose your agency of your consciousness if you do take this this thing.

You know where the Bible talks about you know men seek death and they cannot find it. I truly believe that and also those that have the mark of the beast are also casted into the lake of fire with the false prophet and the serpent. So, it makes me think that once you commit yourself, once you actually give your allegiance over to this god, you know, you are going to have to take this mark. And when you do take this mark, you're you are making the ultimate decision for your agency of your consciousness. You will not, you'll be taken out of the driving seat. Yeah.

And it's actually worse than that. Sorry, I didn't mean to over talk you, but the uniqueness of it is that your name is stricken from the Lamb's book of life. Okay. That's hardcore. And so, you have to, you know, really think about it didactically and biblically that there's only one other time that that happened. And this this gets into, you know, a lot of the Apocrypha and extra biblical texts that gives some more details to what's going on in Genesis. In particular, Genesis 6, but it was that it's actually a forfeit of your created image in God. That's why your name is stricken from the Lamb's book of life. You literally cannot, you cannot be redeemed, because you're not his creation anymore. Days of Noah. Days of Noah. You're actually not his. So, you did a forfeit like the third of the 'they kept not their first estate'. They forfeited their first estate. No chance. There is no chance for redemption. You forfeited it. Adam and Eve forfeited in the garden the presence of God. Israel forfeited. These are all lesser examples. Adam and Eve. Israel written over their head.

They forfeited the presence of God with them as well too. And then at the end of the age, the church forfeits Christ Jesus being in and among and his presence being with them. But the mark of the beast is the final culmination of your true heart's desire. Your true heart's desire is revealed in taking that mark that you actually don't even want to be created in his image. That's what; so, it actually reworks the fingerprint of God in you at a protein mitochondrial DNA sequencing basis, to where you are not his any longer by choice. Which is why your name is stricken from the Lamb's book of life because there can be no redemption, because Christ died for humanity. By the way he didn't die for your dogs all this weird dog worship he didn't die for your horses he didn't die for all these other things. He died for humanity. He died for humanity!
